

PRESENTATION — A certificate of appreciation from the American Cancer Society was presented H. P. Atherton Jr., manager of Security First National Bank in Torrance, recently by Mrs. Robert N. Stapleton, district chairman of volunteers. Atherton received the award for his leadership as district crusade chairman during the April cancer crusade.

Great Books Club Holds Discussion

Members and guests of the Torrance Great Books Group attended a chili supper and informal discussion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom E. Witt, 408 Via La Selva, Torrance, July 26.

Present besides the host and hostess were: Mr. and Mrs. Don Salk, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Seidler and Mrs. Florence Goodale, all of Torrance. Also attending were Mrs. Elaine Davis of Redondo Beach; Mrs. Thelma Power of Lomita; Stewart Blank of Lawndale; Dr. Margaret Storkan of Gardena and Miss Joan Etorkan of Pomona; Mrs. Pat Glasgow of Inglewood; Carolyn Huber of Santa Monica; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pierson of Hermosa Beach; and Dr. and Mrs. V. Josephson of Palos Verdes Estates.

In the summertime this group combines social activities with consideration of works outside the scope of the regular discussion series.

Thursday night the book discussed was "The Way of Zen," by Alan Watt. Planned for an evening in August is a discussion of "Alice in Wonderland."

Fleet Auxiliary Slates Program For Coming Year

Harbor View Unit 217 Ladies Auxiliary of the Fleet Reserve Association held its first business meeting of the new year Aug. 2 at 8 p.m. in Ulabrand Hall, 1125 South Gaffey St., San Pedro.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Tava V. Miekley, new president, the board got off with a flying start at the recent meeting held in her home. The board made plans for events on the year's agenda which were voted on at this meeting.

Applications for membership and new members were one of the highlights of the meeting.

First project of the new year will be a drive for new and renewed memberships. The auxiliary is comprised of wives, and adult daughters of Navy and Marine Corps Reservists and careermen. Members aid and assist in promoting matters pertaining to welfare, social and patriotic work for the Fleet Reserve Association.

A social hour with refreshments followed the business meeting.

'Operation Woman Power' Conference

"Modern Woman Looks at our Changing City" is the theme of a Conference being planned by "Operation Womanpower," a coordinated movement of some 25 women's organizations with a Greater Los Angeles membership of over $25,000. The conference will be held Sept. 21 at the University of Southern California.

"Operation Womanpower" — "dedicated to strengthening our community resources in order to develop our human potential" — is headed by Mrs. Irving L. Wieder, past president of West Coast B'nai B'rith Women.

The Sept. 21 conference will focus on four major areas of concern in a fast growing, multi-cultural city: Excellence in Education; Employment Problems; Land Use for Living; and In-

Pair Moves Here Following Vows

The new Mr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Lass have made their home in Torrance following a June wedding in the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church. The bride, the former Donna C. Zelenka, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Zelenka of Lawndale, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Lass of Iowa.

For her wedding, the bride chose a floor-length gown of lace with a scoop neckline trimmed with pearls and sequins. Her gown had long, tapered sleeves and a fitted bodice with a full skirt ending in a double chapel-length train. The bride's veil was French finger-tipped with iridescent sequins held in place by a crown of sequins and pearls. The bride, who carried a bouquet of white orchids and turquoise mums, was escorted to the altar by her father.

ATTENDING

Miss Zelenka was attended by Mrs. Barbara Entz, her sister, matron of honor; and Sandra Parrish, bridesmaid. The matron of honor and bridesmaid wore identical turquoise sheath dresses with sabrina necklines and detachable bouffant over-skirts, they wore matching pill-box hats and veils. Attending the bridegroom were Paul Lass of Iowa and Lloyd Klemke of Inglewood.

Visitor Speaks For Dr. Jones

Summer worship service continues at the First Presbyterian Church of Gardena, 1957 Redondo Beach Blvd., at 11 a.m. each Sunday.

Ushers were William Wood and John Heafner. In charge of the guest book was Mrs. Roy Luthe.

Soloist was John Hertert who sang "Because" and the "Lord's Prayer." Greeting guests at a reception at the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Parrish of Westchester, were the bride's mother in a white linen sheath with turquoise accessories and the bridegroom's mother wearing a turquoise dress with white accessories.

HONEYMOON

Following the reception, the newlyweds departed for a brief honeymoon in Santa Barbara.

The new Mrs. Lass attended El Camino and Compton colleges. The bridegroom is a graduate of Iowa State and is employed at Space Technology Laboratories as a programmer.

Dr. and Mrs. Jones are on vacation during August. The Rev. Joseph Potts, executive secretary of the Centinela Valley YMCA and Presbyterian minister, will be guest minister Aug. 12 and 19. His topic Aug. 12 is "Not to Defend Some Ancient Creed."

Nursery care is provided during the church school hour and the worship service.

Church school is conducted each Sunday from 9:00 to 10:40 with classes from nursery (3 years) through the adult class.

The Mariners, married couples of the church, will meet Saturday evening for a steak fry in the yard of the Wayne Larsons, 16824 Hobart Blvd.

Fifteen families attended a Mariners Family Camp-out last weekend at Barton Flats.
